

Who is Eligible to Receive Certified Copy of An AZ Birth Record (A.C.C. R-9-19-210)

Arizona is a "closed record" state. That means that vital records are not public record. Arizona law identifies those who are eligible to receive a certified copy of an Arizona birth record:

Who is Eligible to Apply in Arizona:

The individual, if the individual is of legal age or married

A parent of the individual

The individual's spouse

The individual's grandparent, adult child, adult grandchild, or adult brother or sister

The individual's guardian

A person designated in a power of attorney, established by the individual's parent or guardian according to A.R.S. § 14-5104 or 14-5107

A person appointed as the individual's conservator according to A.R.S. Title 14, Chapter 5, Article 4

A person designated in a court order to receive a certified copy of the individual's certificate of birth registration

An attorney representing:

- a. The individual, if the individual is of legal age or married;
- b. The individual's parent; or
- c. The individual's guardian while acting on the individual's behalf

An adoption agency, licensed according to A.R.S. § 8-126, or a private attorney if:

- a. An adoption of the individual is pending, and
- b. The adoption agency or private attorney represents the individual's biological parents or prospective adoptive parents

A governmental agency processing:

- a. An adoption, a financial claim, a governmental benefit application,
- b. Or another form of compensation on behalf of an individual,
- c. Or having another official purpose for the certified copy of the individual's certificate of birth registration

Why do we need Certified Copies of Birth Certificates?

Certified copies of Arizona Birth Certificates are important personal records. Parents are encouraged to apply soon after their child's birth.

Some of the most common uses include:

- Registering for school or sports programs. Consider getting your copies before school starts
- Obtaining a Social Security card for your child
- Tax filings
- Benefits enrollment
- Documenting family history

Presenting documentation and forms of ID in languages other than English:

Note: An applicant presenting documents from a foreign country as proof of relationship or proof of eligibility must provide certified copies of the documents. Photocopies are not acceptable. The applicant must also provide a certified translation of the documents.
